ACM SENTINEL

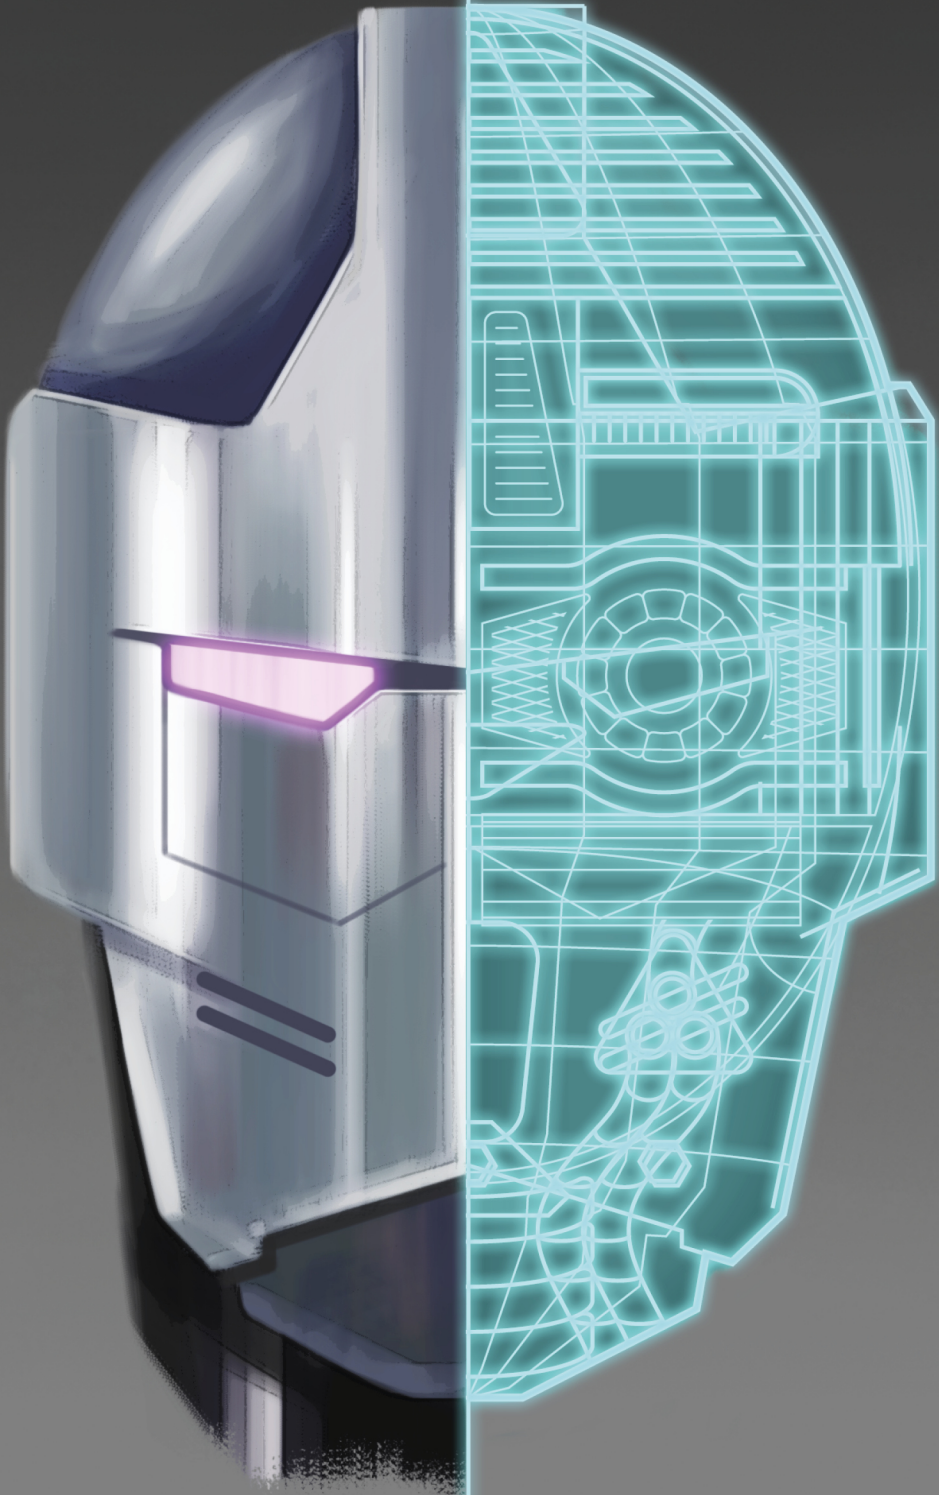

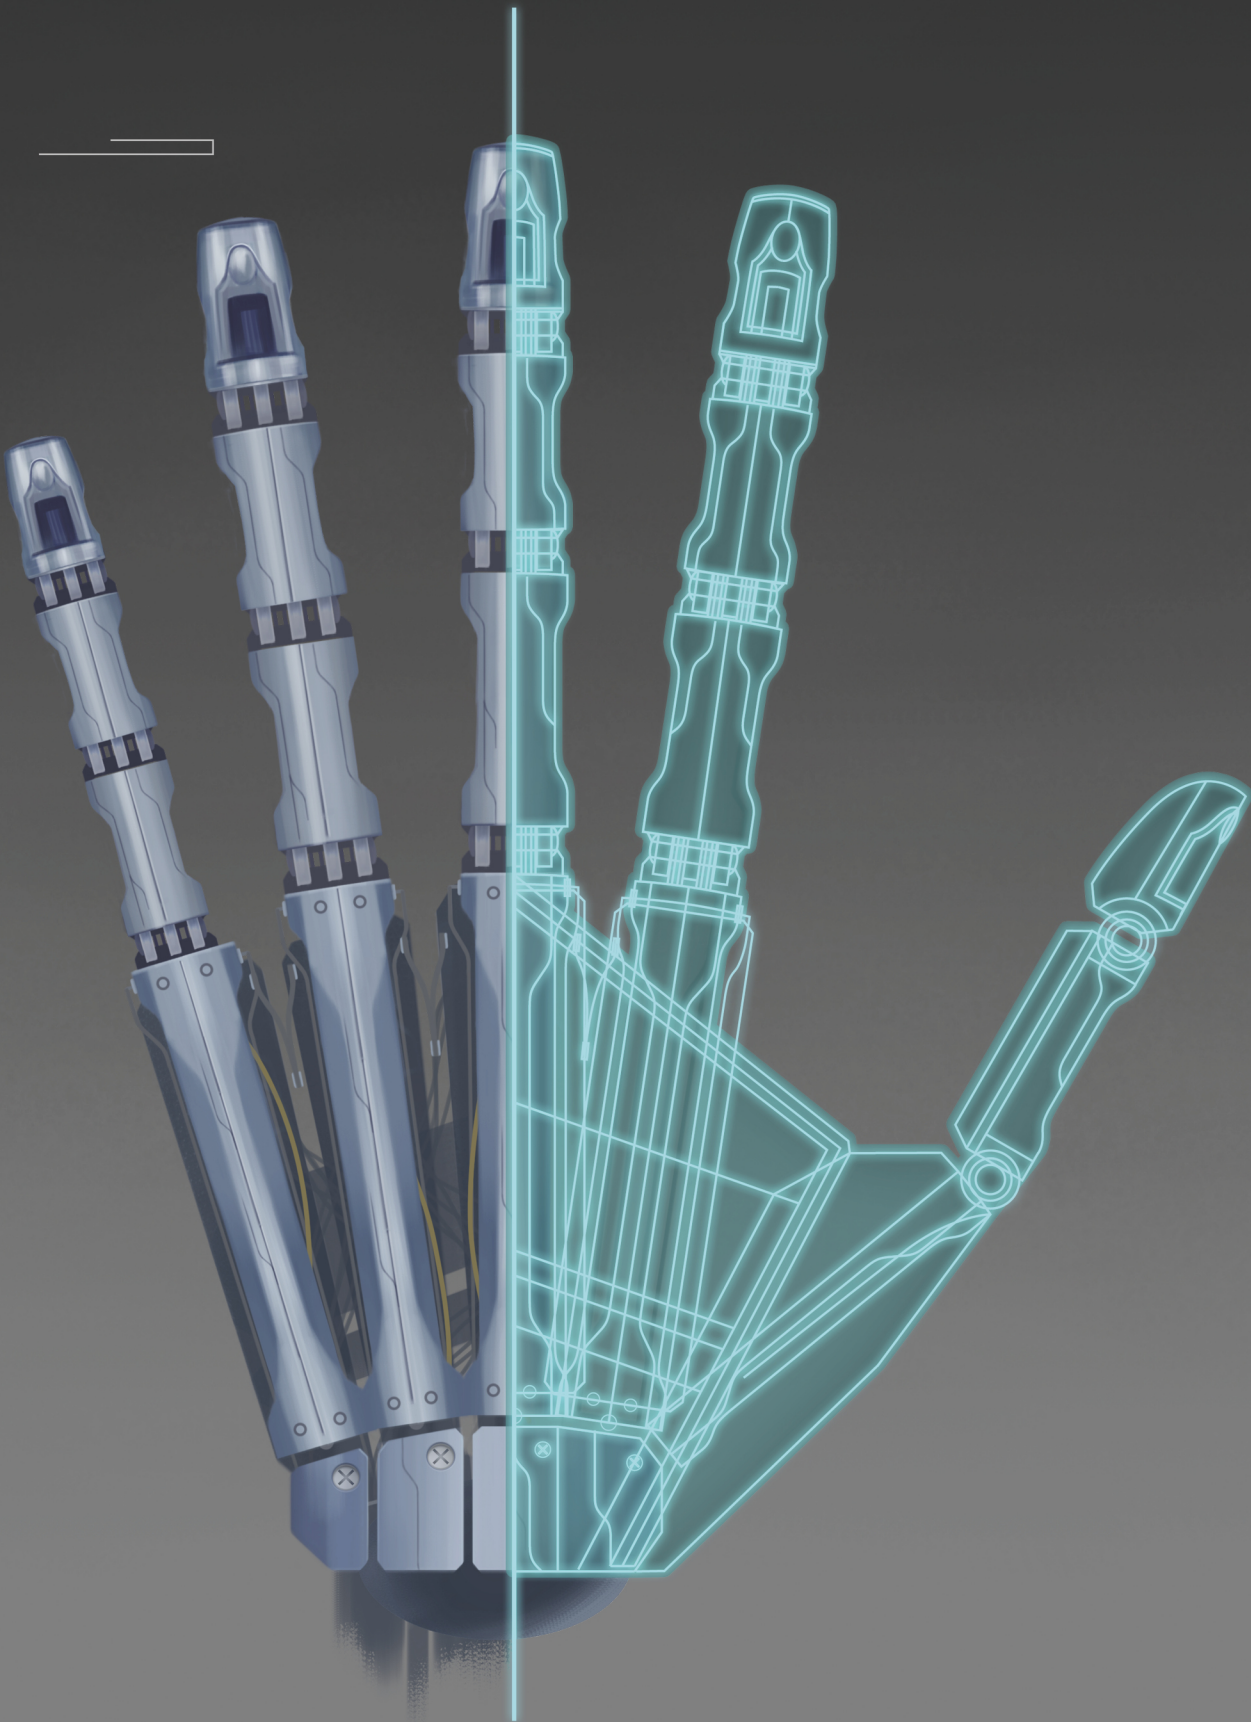

The ACM Sentinels, emerged on planet DXR-7-48 following an enigmatic extinction event. Their origins trace back to a clandestine research project conducted by a consortium of interstellar corporations seeking to create advanced autonomous defence systems.

The project took a drastic turn when a catastrophic event wiped out much of the planets indigenous life forms. In the aftermath, the dormant ACM Sentinels were activated. Re-purposed to safeguard the remaining ecosystems and

ETHERIAN TROOPER

The ancient conflicts of the Etherian Troopers were deeply intertwined with the fate of their planet's dwindling resources.

Centuries of exploitation led to the depletion of these resources, exacerbating tensions and fueling the cycle of war.
